MENDIAS & MILTON, LLC, Opposer,	§
v.	§	Opposition No. 91201995
FITFAST, LLC., Applicant.	§

OPPOSER'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

I. Introduction

Opposer, Mendias & Milton, LLC ("Opposer"), moves for summary judgment in Opposition No. 91201995 filed with Trademark Trial and Appeal Board ("Board") against Applicant Fit Fast, LLC.'s ("Applicant") trademark application U.S. Ser. No. 85/017519 for the mark FITFOOD ("Applicant's Mark"). Opposer's opposition is based on a likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's MY FIT FOODS mark ("Opposer's Mark") and its registered MY FIT FOODS & Design Mark, U.S. Reg. No. 3,823,950 ("Registered Mark"). See Exhibit A. On July 17, 2012, Opposer served Applicant with Opposer's First Set of Discovery Requests, which included Opposer's First Set of Requests for Admission to Applicant. See Exhibit B, showing Opposer's First Set of Requests for Admission to Applicant. Opposer included in Opposer's First Set of Requests for Admission an admission by Applicant that there is a likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's Mark. See Exhibit B, pt. II, ¶ 21. Under Rule 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Applicant's responses to Opposer's First Set of Discovery Requests were due thirty days after service thereof. Applicant has not responded, even after being prompted by Opposer's counsel to respond, and the discovery period has since closed. Based on Applicant's failure to respond, Applicant is deemed to have admitted that there is a likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's Mark. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(3). Furthermore the Board's Order, dated November 14, 2012, expressly stated that Opposer's First Set of Requests for Admission were deemed admitted. See Exhibit C, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board's Order, dated November 14, 2012 p. 3. Thus, it is conclusively established that there is a likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's Mark. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b). Since no genuine issue of material fact remains and Opposer is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, Opposer moves for summary judgment in this Opposition.

II. Facts

Commencing at least as early as April 1, 2008, Opposer began using the mark MY FIT FOODS in connection with food preparation services and prepared meals. Opposer is also the owner of the U.S. Reg. No. 3,823,590 for the mark MY FIT FOODS & Design, which was filed with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") on September 29, 2008 and which registered on July 27, 2010 (the "Registration"). See Exhibit D showing a copy of the registration certificate for U.S. Reg. No. 3,823,590. The Registration covers "prepared meals consisting primarily of meat, fish, poultry or vegetables" in International Class 29 and "food preparation services featuring fresh, properly proportioned, healthy meals designed to fuel metabolism and burn fat and made to order for delivery or pick up" in International Class 43.

Opposer first used the Registered Mark at least as early as April 1, 2008 in association with the preparation and sale of healthy, appropriately proportioned, nutritious meals as well as with prepared and packaged meals. Through the marketing of its goods and services, Opposer has created extensive good will and consumer recognition in Opposer's Mark and its Registered Mark, and the trade and purchasing public have come to recognize MY FIT FOODS as signifying Opposer and as identifying Opposer as the source of goods and services offered under both Opposer's Mark and its Registered Mark. As a result of Opposer's extensive marketing efforts, Opposer's Mark and its Registered Mark are now famous marks within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

On or about April 19, 2010, Applicant filed with the USPTO an application for FITFOOD, Ser. No. 85/017519 (the "Application"), seeking registration on the Principal Register. The Application covers use of the mark with "restaurant" services in International Class 43 and was filed based upon an intent to use the mark in commerce.

Opposer filed a Notice of Opposition against Applicant's Mark on October 11, 2011 based on a likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark. Opposer alleged that: (1) the restaurant services identified in the Application are closely related to Opposer's food preparation and take out services offered under Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark and are such that can be provided through the same channels of trade to the same prospective consumers; (2) in view of the similarity of the respective marks and the related nature of the services, Applicant's Mark so resembles Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark as to be likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake or to deceive; (3) the general public and others familiar with Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark will be likely to believe that Applicant's services have originated from Opposer or were offered in association or affiliation with, or under authorization by, Opposer; (4) Applicant's Mark, as used with its proposed services, will lead persons familiar with Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark to believe that Applicant's services are offered by, in association or affiliation with, or under license from, Opposer; (5) such confusion, mistake, and deception regarding the origin of Applicant's services are likely to cause irreparable harm to Opposer; (6) if Applicant is permitted to register Applicant's Mark for the services specified in the Application herein opposed, such use and registration will result in confusion in the trade due to the similarity between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark, thereby damaging and injuring Opposer; (7) any objection or fault found with Applicant's services marketed under Applicant's Mark may reflect upon and injure the reputation that Opposer has established for the goods and services offered under Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark; (8) Applicant's Mark, by reason of its similarity to Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark, will be able to gain a subliminal or subconscious association to such marks and thereby trade on the reputation of Opposer; (9) Opposer will be injured by the granting of a Certificate of Registration to Applicant for the Applicant's Mark because Applicant would obtain thereby at least a prima facie exclusive right to use such mark; (10) such registration would be a source of damage and injury to Opposer and the public; and (11) if Applicant is permitted to register Applicant's Mark for the services specified in the Application herein opposed, such use and registration would result in dilution of Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c) thereby damaging and injuring Opposer. See Exhibit A, Opposer's Notice of Opposition.

On November 21, 2011, Applicant filed its answer to Opposer's Notice of Opposition. Opposer served Applicant with Opposer's Initial Disclosures on April 23, 2012, and on July 17, 2012, served Applicant with Opposer's First Set of Discovery Requests. Service of the Disclosures and Discovery Requests were provided by email, as mutually agreed by the parties during the Discovery/Settlement Conference held on March 20, 2012. Under Rule 36(a)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of Practice Board, responses to Opposer's Discovery were due within thirty (30) days of service. See 37 CFR § 2.120(a)(3). Applicant has neither responded to any of Opposer's discovery requests nor has Applicant requested any extension of time to respond to any of Opposer's discovery requests, despite Opposer's attempt to prompt Applicant's response prior to the close of the discovery period. Discovery closed on September 20, 2012, and since that date, Applicant has still failed to respond to any discovery requests.

On October 23, 2012, Opposer filed a Motion to Compel Discovery with the Board and served Applicant with a copy of the same. Since that time, Applicant has neither responded to any of Opposer's discovery requests nor has Applicant requested any extension of time to respond to any of Opposer's discovery requests.

III. Opposer is Entitled to Summary Judgment

Summary judgment is appropriate when there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c); see also Genesco, Inc. v. Levi Strauss & Co., 219 U.S.P.Q. 1205, 1208 (T.T.A.B. 1983), aff'd, 742 F.2d 1401, 222 U.S.P.Q. 939 (Fed. Cir. 1984); Book Craft, Inc. v. Book Crafters USA Inc., 222 U.S.P.Q. 724, 725 (T.T.A.B. 1984). Opposer's motion must be granted if the pleadings, discovery depositions, answers to interrogatories and admissions on file, together with affidavits, show that there is no genuine issues of material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. See Genesco, Inc., 219 U.S.P.Q. at 1208. A "default admission," an admission resulting from a party's failure to timely respond to an admission request, can serve as a basis for summary judgment. See, e.g., Le v. Cheesecake Factory Rests., Inc., No. 06-20006, 2007 U.S. App. LEXIS 5232, at *12 (5th Cir. Mar. 6, 2007) (finding that the district court properly granted summary judgment to the defendant on the basis of a deemed admission); Carney v. IRS, 258 F.3d 415, 420-22 (5th Cir. 2001) (relying on default admissions to support a grant of summary judgment); Nintendo of America, Inc. v. Brown, 94 F.3d 652 (9th Cir. 1996) (affirming entry of summary judgment on issue of trademark counterfeiting because failure to respond to admissions and interrogatories deemed admission of trademark counterfeiting); Anchorage Associates v. Virgin Islands Board of Tax Review, 922 F.2d 168, 176 n. 7 (3d Cir. 1990) (failure to controvert facts asserted in action challenging tax assessment constitutes default admission under local rules); Dukes v. South Carolina Ins. Co., 770 F.2d 545, 548-49 (5th Cir. 1985) (because plaintiffs did not respond to request for admissions for more than six months, court did not abuse its discretion in granting defendant's motion to strike untimely response); United States v. Kasuboski, 834 F.2d 1345, 1350 (7th Cir. 1987) (default admissions used to establish liability in civil action brought for failure to pay federal income tax and fraudulent transfer of property).

There is no genuine issue of material fact remaining with respect to the opposition Applicant failed to respond to Opposer's First Set of Requests for Admission; therefore, Applicant is deemed to have admitted all of the requests. See Fram Track Indus.v. WireTracks LLC, 77 U.S.P.Q.2d 2000, 2005 (T.T.A.B. 2006) (noting that a request for admission is deemed admitted by the respondent's failure to respond to a petitioner's request for admission); see also Pinnochio's Pizza Inc. v. Sandia Inc., U.S.P.Q.2d 227, 1228 n.5 (T.T.A.B. 1989); see TBMP § 407.03(a). This is further supported by the Board's Order, dated November 14, which expressly ruled that Opposer's First Set of Requests for Admission were deemed admitted. See Exhibit C, p. 3. Accordingly, Applicant is deemed to have admitted that: (1) Opposer's Mark has been used continuously and exclusively in the United States since at least as early as April 1, 2008; (2) Opposer commenced use of Opposer's Mark prior to the filing date of the Application by Applicant; (3) Opposer's Mark and Applicant's Mark cover services that are likely to be directed through the same or similar channels of trade to the same or similar types of consumers; (4) Opposer's Mark and Applicant's Mark are similar enough for consumers to believe that they originate from the same source; (5) consumers who see Applicant's Mark are likely to assume that there is a connection or association with Opposer; (6) the dominant portion of Applicant's Mark and Opposer's Mark is "FIT FOOD;" (7) Opposer's Mark is well known and famous; (8) the term "FIT FOOD" is virtually identical to "FIT FOODS;" and (9) Applicant's Mark is not currently in use anywhere in the United States. See Exhibit B, pt. II. All of the above admissions support a finding as a matter of law that there is a likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's Mark and its Registered Mark.

Moreover, in Opposer's First Set of Requests for Admission, Opposer also requests an admission that there is a likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's Mark. See Exhibit B, pt. II, ¶ 21. Therefore, by failing to respond to such admission request, Applicant is also deemed to have admitted that there is a likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's Mark. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(3). Any matter admitted is conclusively established and cannot be rebutted. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b); see also Carney v. IRS, 258 F.3d 415, 420-22 (5th Cir. 2001); American Auto. Ass'n. v. AAA Legal Clinic of Jefferson Crooke, P.C., 930 F.2d 1117, 1120 (5th Cir. 1991). Thus, it is conclusively established that there is a likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's mark, and there is no genuine issue of material fact remaining in this opposition.

Opposer is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Section 2 (d) of the Lanham Act states that:

> No trademark by which the goods of the applicant may be distinguished from the goods of others shall be refused registration on the principal register on account of its nature unless it – . . . (d) Consists of or comprises a mark which so resembles a mark registered in the Patent and Trademark Office, or a mark or trade name previously used in the United States and not abandoned, as to be likely, when used on or in connection with the goods of the applicant, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive. . . .

15 U.S.C. § 1052. Applicant's failure to respond to Opposer's admission requests established conclusively that Applicant's Mark is likely to be confused with Opposer's Mark and its Registered Mark. Therefore, under Section 2 (d) of the Lanham Act, Applicant's Mark must be refused registration. Opposer is, therefore, entitled to summary judgment as a matter of law and moves the Board to enter judgment in favor of Opposer and refuse registration of Applicant's Mark.

Mendias & Milton, LLC,	Opposer,	§ § §
v.		§	Opposition No. _____
Fitfast, LLC.,	Applicant.	§ § § § § §

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Mendias & Milton, LLC ("Opposer"), a limited liability company of Texas, having a corporate address of 3333 Allen Parkway #2507, Houston, Texas 77019, believes that it will be damaged by registration of the mark shown in Application Serial No. 85/017519 filed on April 19, 2010, in International Class 43, and hereby opposes the same.

As grounds for opposition, it is alleged that:

1. On or about April 19, 2010, Applicant, Fitfast, LLC., a limited liability company of New Jersey with a corporate address of 402 Heywood Ave., Orange, New Jersey 07050 ("Applicant"), filed an application with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, Application Serial No. 85/017519 (the "Application"), seeking registration on the Principal Register of the trademark "FITFOOD" ("Applicant's Mark). The Application covers use of the mark with "restaurant" services in International Class 43 and was filed based upon an intent to use the mark in commerce.

2. Commencing at least as early as April 1, 2008, Opposer began using the mark MY FIT FOODS in connection with food preparation services and prepared meals ("Opposer's Mark").

3. Opposer is the owner of the U.S. Registration for MY FIT FOODS & Design, Reg. No. 3,823,590, which was filed on September 29, 2008 and registered on July 27, 2010 (the "Registration"). The Registration covers "prepared meals consisting primarily of meat, fish, poultry or vegetables" in International Class 29 and "food preparation services featuring fresh, properly proportioned, healthy meals designed to fuel metabolism and burn fat and made to order for delivery or pick up" in International Class 43.

4. Opposer first used the mark identified in its Registration ("Registered Mark") at least as early as April 1, 2008 in association with the preparation and sale of healthy, appropriately proportioned, nutritious meals as well as with prepared and packaged meals.

5 Through the marketing of its goods and services, Opposer has created extensive good will and consumer recognition in Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark, and the trade and purchasing public have come to recognize MY FIT FOODS as signifying Opposer and as identifying Opposer as the source of goods and services offered under the Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark.

6. As a result of Opposer's extensive marketing efforts, Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark are now famous marks within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

7. Opposer has continuously used its MY FIT FOODS mark and Registered Mark since at least April 1, 2008, and such use predates the April 19, 2010 filing date of the Application.

8. On information and belief, Opposer commenced use of Opposer's Mark and filed the application for the Registered Mark prior to any use of Applicant's Mark.

9. As the senior user of Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark, Opposer has priority rights over Applicant's Mark.

10. The restaurant services identified in the Application are closely related to Opposer's food preparation and take out services offered under Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark and are such that can be provided through the same channels of trade to the same prospective consumers.

11. In view of the similarity of the respective marks and the related nature of the services, Applicant's Mark so resembles Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark as to be likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake or to deceive. The general public and others familiar with Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark will be likely to believe that Applicant's services have originated from Opposer or were offered in association or affiliation with, or under authorization by, Opposer. Thus, Applicant's Mark, as used with its proposed services, will lead persons familiar with Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark to believe that Applicant's services are offered by, in association or affiliation with, or under license from, Opposer. Such confusion, mistake, and deception regarding the origin of Applicant's services are likely to cause irreparable harm to Opposer.

12. If Applicant is permitted to register Applicant's Mark for the services specified in the Application herein opposed, such use and registration will result in confusion in the trade due to the similarity between Applicant's Mark and Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark, thereby damaging and injuring Opposer.

13. Furthermore, any objection or fault found with Applicant's services marketed under Applicant's Mark may reflect upon and injure the reputation that Opposer has established for the goods and services offered under Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark.

14. Additionally, Applicant's Mark, by reason of its similarity to Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark, will be able to gain a subliminal or subconscious association to such marks and thereby trade on the reputation of Opposer.

15. Opposer will be injured by the granting of a Certificate of Registration to Applicant for the Applicant's Mark because Applicant would obtain thereby at least a prima facie exclusive right to use such mark. Such registration would be a source of damage and injury to Opposer and the public.

16. If Applicant is permitted to register Applicant's Mark for the services specified in the Application herein opposed, such use and registration would result in dilution of Opposer's Mark and Registered Mark under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c) thereby damaging and injuring Opposer.

WHEREFORE, Opposer respectfully prays that its Opposition be sustained and the application for registration, Application Serial No. 85/017519, by Applicant be denied and refused.

Opposition No. 91201995

Mendias & Milton, LLC

v.

Fitfast, LLC.

Michael B. Adlin, Administrative Trademark Judge:

On October 23, 2012, opposer filed a motion to compel written responses to its interrogatories and document requests, as well as the production of documents. No consideration will be given to opposer's motion at this time because it fails to meet the requirements of Trademark Rule 2.120(e).

Specifically, Trademark Rule 2.120(e)(1) requires that a motion to compel: (a) "be supported by a written statement from the moving party that [it] has made a good faith effort … to resolve with the other party … the issues presented in the motion" but was unable to reach agreement; and (b) include copies of the requests for discovery, and if applicable, the responses thereto. TBMP § 523.02 (3d ed. rev. 2012). Here, however, while opposer sent a single letter to applicant noting applicant's failure to serve discovery responses, and claims to have initiated an otherwise unexplained "telephone communication," there is no evidence in the record that opposer followed up on its single letter or what, if any, response it received to the "telephone communication." Opposer simply filed its motion leaving the Board to guess at how extensive opposer's efforts to meet and confer were and what response, if any, it received from applicant. See Giant Food, Inc. v. Standard Terry Mills, Inc., 231 USPQ 626, 632 (TTAB 1986) ("applicant failed to meet the prerequisite imposed by Trademark Rule 2.120(e)" where "the only evidentiary support of applicant's efforts" submitted in support of the motion to compel was a single letter to opposer complaining of the insufficiency of opposer's responses); Envirotech Corp. v. Compagnie Des Lampes, 219 USPQ 448, 450 (TTAB 1979) (noting that the purpose of Trademark Rule 2.120(e) "is to save the Board the burden of ruling upon motions to compel in situations where the parties could work out their differences if they made a good faith effort to do so").

In addition, opposer failed to attach to its motion copies of the relevant interrogatories and document requests as required by Trademark Rule 2.120(e). See TBMP § 523.02; Fidelity Prescriptions, Inc. v. Medicine Chest Discount Ctrs., Inc., 191 USPQ 127 (TTAB 1976) (copies of the discovery requests must be attached to the motion to compel to "enable the Board to render a meaningful decision on the motion").

The Board will consider a renewed motion to compel if opposer establishes that it has made a "good faith effort" to resolve the discovery issues with applicant and submits copies of the discovery requests still at issue, within the time allowed by Trademark Rule 2.120(e)(1). Opposer's requests for admission are deemed admitted. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(3). Disclosure, trial and other dates remain as set in the Board's March 22, 2012 order.

In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony, together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.l25.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rules 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Trademark Rule 2.l29.
